Emmerson completes ESIA assessment for Khemisset potash project, with approval expected early 2021

Emmerson PLC (LON:EML) Graham Clarke talks to Proactive London about the completion of the their work streams required for the ESIA Khemisset potash project in Northern Morocco.

Clarke says the project is now on track for approval in early 2021, 'once we key the key piece of the jigsaw to be able to start construction'.

He goes on to say he's very pleased with the work done and stands by their approach to 'do the right things and do them in the right way'.
